

BOARDROOM

BOARDROOM

Remaining almost entirely in its original form dating back to 1912, the Boardroom is the perfect place for an intimate wedding. With respect for the original expression and with emphasis on the room's luxurious ambiance, newer designs have been created by Shamballa Jewels and their designer, Olga Krukovskaya.

The Boardroom is located on the 2nd floor and has a private bar.

Maximum 30 people

SQUARE

SQUARE

Square is the perfect venue for a wedding with options to create multiple spaces. For example, if you want a hidden bar or dance area after the dinner, wow moments can be created more than once throughout the evening.

The space also includes large screen for entertainment and light design equipment allows you to change the mood of the room. Square also comes with own entrance and exit, including large wardrobe options.

Villa Square is located on the lower deck of the hotel

T37

T37

Back in the Central Post Office times, the postmen used to hang out in T37 amongst letters and packages. Today T37 is a wine and cocktail bar. On the path to create the best possible hotel for the world we always strive to find new and creative solutions to take responsibility for our environmental footprint and local community.

The bold color palette counter the strong heritage elements, providing a distinct and jovial aesthetic. Creating the ideal setting for after hours cocktails and an evening to remember
